Morning address message

This week's morning address was focussed on the topic of 'Responsibility':

“One of the most important steps to take in demonstrating responsibility for your life is to stop or avoid blaming others. By taking responsibility you reclaim your freedom and power and have the ability to make any change which is required. When there's no personal accountability, there's no way to grow or improve. You'll be stuck in the same place dwelling on negativity without ever moving forward. Taking responsibility means making the right choices and forming good habits, not just because you want to avoid a sanction or consequence but because it's fundamentally who you are and the person you want to be.”

Options Evening

I have been contacted by some parents and carers in recent days with regards to Options Evening, requesting further information. I can confirm that the event will be on Thursday 9th March and further information will be communicated to all ahead of the event. Your patience in this matter is appreciated.
